
2022 ARD Research Symposium
“The 1890 Research and Innovation Agenda: Pathways to Build Back Better”

Atlanta Marriott Marquis, Atlanta GA
April 2 – 5, 2022

Sponsorship Request

The sponsorship levels are listed below:

For $50,000 or above (Platinum)

- Receive five (5) registrations plus an exhibit booth
- Agency logo displayed at functions
- A full page ad in the program booklet
- Other negotiated amenities (i.e., agency may conduct one of the concurrent workshop sessions and have a designated time and location to meet with and/or interview students)

For $25,000 or above (Gold)

- Receive three (3) registrations plus an exhibit booth
- Agency logo displayed at functions
- A full page ad in the program booklet
- Other negotiated amenities (i.e., agency may conduct one of the concurrent workshop sessions and have a designated time and location to meet with and/or interview students)

For $15,000 or above (Silver)

- Receive two (2) registrations plus an exhibit booth
- Agency logo displayed at functions
- A half page ad in the program booklet
- Other negotiated amenities (i.e., have a designated time and location to meet with and/or interview students)

For $10,000 or above (Bronze)

- Receive one (1) registrations plus an exhibit booth
- Agency logo displayed at functions
- A half page ad in the program booklet

Please send the sponsorship level and payment to:

Dr. Conrad Bonsi, ARD Treasurer

G.W. Carver Agricultural Experiment Station
College of Agriculture, Environment, & Nutrition Sciences
100 Campbell Hall
Tuskegee University
Tuskegee, AL 36088
cbonsi@tuskegee.edu