

RESUME

George T. Bates, Ph.D.

Address: 118 Bates Rd.
Natchez, MS 39120

Phone: 601-442-8956 (home)
601-89605863 (cell)

Email: george.t.bates@gmail.com

---

Education: B.S., Animal Science, Mississippi State University, 1967
M.S., Animal Science, Mississippi State University, 1970
Ph.D., Nutrition, Mississippi State University, 1972

Experience: 1972-1981 – Assistant Professor of Animal Science, Alcorn State Univ.
1981-1990 – Associate Professor of Animal Science, Alcorn State Univ.
1990-2004 – Professor of Animal Science, Alcorn State Univ.
1992-2004 – Associate Research Director, Alcorn State Univ.
2004-2009 – Adjunct Professor, Mississippi State Univ.
2004- Professor Emeritus, Alcorn State Univ.
2005-2007 – Disaster Recovery Coordinator following Hurricane Katrina for The Presbytery of Mississippi, a jurisdictional unit of the Presbyterian Church (USA).

Research Interests:

Mineral nutrition of ruminants
Forage utilization by ruminants
Development of alternative crops and livestock enterprises
Soybeans for human food use
Sustainable agricultural production

Other Responsibilities:

Member, Mississippi Board of Animal Health, 1998-2004
Chairman, Mississippi Board of Animal Health, 2003-2004
Member, Advisory Board of NRCS Plant Materials Center, 1996-2004
Member, Council on Agricultural Research, Extension & Teaching, 2005-2007

Other Interests:

Health issues related to water resources in developing countries.
Disaster recovery in Haiti following the earthquake of January, 2010.

Objectives: (a) to participate in selected research projects and outreach programs.
(b) to provide consultant services to those seeking to improve quality of agricultural research and development.