Breakdown of Fees by Academic Year Aviation Science, Professional Pilot Program Fall 2023

In addition to regular tuition and student fees, students enrolled in the Bachelor of Science, Aviation Science degree program with a Concentration in Professional Pilot are responsible for flight training and ground school course fees. As of the fall semester of 2023, the amount of these fees, by academic year, is detailed below:

Academic Year	Fall	AVSC Courses	Spring	AVSC Courses	Total Fees per Academic Year
Freshman	$350	141	$13,650	143, 153	$14,000
Sophomore	$12,700	161, 163	$6,340	251, 252	$19,040
Junior	$11,750	253	$12,375	254	$24,125
Senior	$4,750	451, 452	$3,960, $5,425, $7,450	462, 272, 482	$4,750* - $21,585
Total - 4 Years					$61,915* - $78,750

*Minimum for Graduation with Bachelor of Science, Aviation Science

Recommended elective courses, but not required for the completion of the degree program.

Please note that this estimate is based on a first-time full time freshman with no prior flight training who progresses without failures through the flight training program. Individual student progress may vary and transfer of flight credentials or other academics may dictate that some flight courses are taken simultaneously. Additionally, flight course failures may require repeats of flight courses. Therefore, the exact timing and total amount of fees may vary for an individual.
