

Microsoft Leap Apprenticeship Program

Learn / Work / Transform

A global apprenticeship program designed to accelerate job-readiness for careers in technology.

Learn more about a paid apprenticeship opportunity with Microsoft Leap Apprenticeship Program!

Seeking apprentices for the following pathways:

- Software Engineer
- Technical Program Manager

Location: Virtual Apprenticeship*

*If offered an FTE position, you will be required to relocate and work in-person at a Microsoft facility once site locations re-open.

Minimum eligibility requirements:

- Completion of relevant training, for example:
 - Graduated from a coding academy or boot camp, plus six months of development projects or professional experience after graduation
 - Self-taught programmer demonstrating recent development projects or professional experience
 - Degree from a community college in computer science or related field
 - Degree from a college/university in computer science or related field with a previous career in tech, plus a 2+ year career break
- Previous work experience in any field
- Not employed as a vendor or full-time employee for Microsoft Corporation within the past six months
- Currently authorized to work in the location of your apprenticeship. Sponsorship will not be provided by the employer nor Microsoft

*Note: a degree is not required for eligibility

Cohort dates: August 30, 2021 – December 17, 2021

Application dates: June 14, 2021 12:00 AM UTC - June 21, 2021 12:00 AM UTC

To apply, please go to www.microsoft.com/en-us/leap/

Microsoft Leap Apprenticeship Program unlocks career opportunities in technology for talent with non-traditional backgrounds. Apprentices are immersed in a transformative experience, which includes classroom and on-the-job training, preparing them for various technology roles worldwide.

Professional skills

- Gain practical skills needed for tech careers
- Learn directly from Microsoft engineers and industry experts
- Take an accelerated path to developing life-long skills

Transformative experience

- Work with Microsoft developer teams on real products and services
- Get 1-on-1 coaching and guidance from a mentor
- Boost your confidence to pursue career opportunities

Community and network

- Learn and grow together with your Microsoft Leap cohort
- Connect with tech and business professionals
- Grow your network with Microsoft Leap participants and alumni