

NASA's Internship Program Webinar

Calling all college, graduate students and recent graduates! It's never too early to get started on a career at NASA. As part of NASA's Internship Program, you'll have the opportunity to work and explore careers while still in school. Join us on 2/13 for a webinar to learn more about NASA's Internship Program. Please note, you must be a U.S. Citizen to be eligible to participate.

Thursday, February 13, 2020

4:30 p.m.-6:00 p.m. EST

Online via webinar. Visit our LinkedIn page to learn more and register by clicking this LINK.

EXPLORE a CAREER at NASA

CURIOSITY

TEAMWORK

INNOVATION

EXPLORATION

Who should attend?

All college sophomores, juniors, and seniors going to Graduate School as well as Graduate students majoring in:

- Aerospace Engineering, Computer Engineering, Electrical Engineering, Mechanical Engineering, and STEM-related academic majors
- Accounting, Business Administration, Economics, Finance, Management, Communications, Journalism, Marketing, Public Administration, and related academic majors
- Limited opportunities for other fields of study

What we'll cover:

An overview of NASA's Internship Program, including information:

- NASA's mission and locations
- NEW! Internship Pilot Tracks (one center or multi-centers)
- Eligibility Requirements
- Application Process and Deadlines
- Available Opportunities
- Tips and tricks from a former OSTEM Intern who is now a Pathways intern
- Q&A Session

Join us and explore the extraordinary, every day! Visit our LinkedIn page to learn more and register.

Follow us:

www.nasa.gov/careers

linkedin.com/company/nasa

@NASAPeople

Please note: Pathways internships are only open to U.S. citizens. If you're an international student, learn more about NASA's International Internships Project here: intern.nasa.gov